

My understanding is that BPL would effectively end HF radio communications with its RF interference. How could that possibly be justified?